Free workshop:

“Bring your Own Blues”

with “Barrelhouse Bonni” McKeown on piano and special guest LARRY TAYLOR

FRIDAY MAY 11, 2018, 4 to 6 p.m.

Ever had the blues? Don't we all, no matter where we come from?

Learn to tell your story in your own three-line blues verse...

Born of African American poverty and struggle, blues music came to Chicago with the Great Migration. “Barrelhouse Bonni” McKeown, piano player, teaching artist, journalist, and Austin neighborhood resident, will help everyone make up and sing our blues. Larry Taylor, blues band leader, will stop by to sing a song, tell a bit about his blues life and music and encourage us to learn more.

Also SAVE THE DATE: Larry Taylor's band will perform at St. Martin's

Blues in the Sanctuary on Saturday, June 2, 2018
